

Quiz 9-1: Parallelism

---

Edit the following sentences to correct faulty parallelism. Example:

Susan wanted to earn a degree in business administration as well as <sup>complete</sup>~~completing~~ the requirements for her secretarial certificate.

1. Nolan helped by cutting the grass, trimming shrubs, mulching flower beds, and leaf raking.
2. Jamie liked reading more than to watch television.
3. The car dealer promised not only that I would receive a rebate but also a free cell phone.
4. Esperanza is responsible for stocking merchandise, writing orders for delivery, and sales of computers.
5. Michiko told the judge that she had been pulled out of a line of fast-moving traffic and of her perfect driving record.
6. To administer the poison, the tribe's sorcerers put it in their victims' food, throw it into their huts, or it can be dropped into their mouths or nostrils while they sleep.
7. Sylvia loved swimming, canoeing, and to hike.
8. Julius realized that he was a talented violinist but proper training and discipline would be the best foundation for a career as a musician.
9. Bill found that it was harder to be fair to himself than being fair to others.
10. At the arts-and-crafts table, the children make potholders, key rings, weave baskets, paint pictures, and assemble model cars.