Quiz 12-1: Misplaced and dangling modifiers

Edit the following sentences to correct misplaced or dangling modifiers. Example:

Sid ~~only~~ wanted to see only the end of the film again, not the full two hours.

1. He promised never to remarry at her deathbed.

2. In late 1973, the major oil producers put an embargo on crude oil sent to the United States that shocked the nation.

3. Although only four years old, my father insisted that I learn to read.

4. At the next train stop, all doors will not open. [Some doors will open.]

5. We are prepared to as soon as possible ship the remainder of your order.

6. All passengers were, as the train reached the border, asked to have their passports ready.

7. After more than ten years of living on the streets, social workers persuaded Jason to take one of the new medications for schizophrenia.

8. This form is only required when the traveler is receiving an advance.

9. The fund is designed for those who want to focus on medium capitalization stocks in search of above-average returns.

10. Thinking that justice had finally prevailed, Lydia's troubles were just beginning.