

Quiz 13-1: Shifts

Edit the following sentences to correct distracting shifts. Example:

As I drove along Route 6, ^I~~you~~ could see the many cars that had slid off the road.
^

1. The logger in the Northwest relies on the old-growth forest for their living.
2. The highlight of our weekend was cleaning the attic and discovering a bundle of love letters you knew would embarrass our parents.
3. Phil said that he would be happy to set up the new computer and when could he come over to get started.
4. Our class visited a museum of living history, where we saw how people had lived in a nineteenth-century village. We participated in several activities. For example, you were shown how to spin and weave.
5. We always follow a strict routine at the campground. First, we erected the tent, rolled out the sleeping bags, and set up the kitchen; then we all head for the swimming pool.
6. Police officers follow strict codes of safety. For example, always point the barrel of the gun upward when the gun is not in use.
7. Everyone should get to the stadium early unless you want to stand in line with mobs of people waiting for tickets.
8. We wondered whether the water was clean enough to drink and could we swim in it.
9. With a little self-discipline and a desire to improve oneself, you too can enjoy the benefits of running.
10. One man collects the tickets and another will search the concert patrons for drugs.