

Quiz 24-1: Pronoun case (such as I versus me)

Edit the following sentences to eliminate errors in case. Do not change correct sentences.
Example:

No one could be more upset about the accident than ^{I.}~~me.~~
^

1. The student ethics board gave Marlo and I the opportunity to defend ourselves against the instructor's false charges.
2. Two local art students, James Kelly and I, are going to paint a mural behind city hall.
3. Jasmine can't come to the party because her and her brother will be out of town that day.
4. I am jealous that our dog likes my neighbor more than I.
5. Doctors should take more seriously what us patients say about our treatment.
6. Randy came with my grandfather and I to the baseball game.
7. I can't remember when my uncle and I last saw each other.
8. It is strange how people in other countries often seem much happier than us.
9. I am sure that we will all be scolded for John laughing during the most solemn moment of the ceremony.
10. My older sister promised to leave her old laptop behind for Paulette and I.