

EXERCISE 24-1

Edit the following sentences to eliminate errors in case. If a sentence is correct, write “correct” after it. Example:

Grandfather cuts down trees for neighbors much younger than ^{he.} ~~him.~~
^

- a. Rick applied for the job even though he heard that other candidates were more experienced than he.
 - b. The jury could not agree that the murderer was he.
 - c. She appreciated him telling the truth in such a difficult situation.
 - d. The director has asked you and I to draft a proposal for a new recycling plan.
 - e. Five close friends and myself rented a station wagon, packed it with food, and drove to Mardi Gras on a three-day weekend.
-
1. The chain stores are threatening the survival of us shopkeepers.
 2. The mysterious old woman handed Natasha and he a gold coin each.
 3. The patient began suffering from the delusion that him and his family were constantly being followed and observed.
 4. My adjustment to a new career was compounded by me becoming a single parent.
 5. The swirling cyclone caused he and his horse to race for shelter.