

EXERCISE 29-2 Conditional Verbs

---

Edit the following conditional sentences for problems with verbs. In some cases, more than one revision is possible. Example:

had
If I ~~have~~ time, I would study both French and Russian next semester.
^

- a. He would have won the election if he went to the inner city to campaign.
  - b. If Verena wins a scholarship, she would go to graduate school.
  - c. Whenever there is a fire in our neighborhood, everybody came out to watch.
  - d. We will lose our largest client unless we would update our computer system.
  - e. If I live in California, I wouldn't need to buy a winter coat.
-
1. If our daughter was an angel, we wouldn't need to discipline her.
  2. If everyone has voted in the last election, the results would have been very different.
  3. The tenants will not pay the rent unless the landlord fixed the furnace.
  4. When dark gray clouds appeared on a hot summer afternoon, a thunderstorm often follows.
  5. Our daughter would have drowned if Officer Blake didn't risk his life to save her.